

For Immediate Classroom Use!

Ethnomusic, Inc.

Presents

Roots of Rhythm and Melody

Two World Musical Instrument Making
K-8 Teacher Workshops

A Cross-curricular Approach Meeting K-12 Academic Standards

Featuring music educator, author, and ethnomusicologist

Dr. Craig Woodson

- Two workshops: Roots of Rhythm on world percussion and Roots of Melody on strings and winds
- Each workshop lasts two and a half days or 15 hours each
- Two graduate credit available, one credit for each workshops
- Instruction supports interdisciplinary K-8 Academic Standards
- Focus is hands-on making and playing simple musical instruments from around the world
- Instruments include strings, winds and percussion from Africa, Asia, Europe and the Americas
- Use Dr. Woodson's free, online Roots of Rhythm curriculum and his new Roots of Melody
- Take either workshop or both workshops for a discount

The Roots of Rhythm and Roots of Melody workshops are sponsored by Ethnomusic, Inc.

Open to all teachers, music and non-music.

August 9-13, 2010 - Lincoln Park Performing Arts Center

Location: 1200 Midland Avenue, Midland, PA 15059-1696 (724) 643-9004

Roots of Rhythm: Monday 9-4, Tuesday 9-4, Wednesday 9-12

Roots of Melody: Wednesday 1-4, Thursday 9-4, Friday 9-4

Fee: Each workshop is $200.00 + $50.00 materials fee or discounted at $450.00 for both

Credits: One graduate credit is $182.00 per workshop

Go to www.EthnomusicInc.com for information and to register

Or call/email Dr. Craig Woodson 440-725-8767 woodsons@roadrunner.com