By Dr. Craig Woodson

SUMMER 2013 REGISTRATION FORM For Workshops in Chagrin Falls, Ohio

Introduction. Each 34-hour workshop is in two 17-hour sections (A, B). Each section can be taken separately; or both. The cost for one is $250.00 or $450.00 for both sections of a workshop. Two graduate credits are available if you take both sections. The cost for 2 credits is $400.00 through Ashland University in Ohio to be paid during the workshop. All workshops take place at Ethnomusic Studio, 17950 Geauga Lake Rd. Chagrin Falls, Ohio 44023 (25 miles south east of Cleveland). There are five offerings.

African Drumming and Drum Making Level I (ADM-1) – Teachers learn both stick and hand drumming techniques from Ghana and Guinea that include master and support drum parts, and basic dance motions.

Drum Circle Facilitation Level I (DCF-1) – Learn the basic drumming & drum circle facilitation techniques for building community, leadership training, classroom management and elements of conflict resolution.

Roots of Rhythm Level I (ROR-1) – This detailed look at ROR chapters 1-10, includes beginning hand and stick drumming techniques, listening and play-along exercises, making instruments, and composing.

Roots of Rhythm Level II (ROR - 2) – After a review chapters 1-10, includes a detailed look at ROR chapters 11-16 that includes intermediate drumming techniques, instrument making & composition.

Roots of Rhythm Level III (ROR - 3) – After a review chapters 1-16, there is a detailed look at how ROR can be used to teach other teachers. This training enables attendees to become certified ROR teachers.
